The Almond Case

The screenshot shows the ERPsimLab Learning Portal interface. At the top left is the logo for ERPsimLab HEC MONTRÉAL and a 15th ANNIVERSARY badge. The top navigation bar includes links for Simulations for ERP, Simulations for Data Science, The Lab, Portals, and My Account. A red arrow points to the 'My Account' button. Below the navigation bar is a blue header for 'Learning Portal' with a red arrow pointing to it. Underneath are tabs for 'Content', 'Games', and 'Content for Instructors', with a red arrow pointing to the 'Content for Instructors' tab. The main content area is titled 'Content for Instructors' and contains a description: 'This restricted section of the Learning Portal gives you access to content and tools reserved to instructors.' Below this is a 'Content' section with three main categories: 'Curricula', 'Exercises', and 'Teaching Notes'. Under 'Exercises', the link 'Configuration Exercise - The Almond Case' is highlighted with a red arrow. A sidebar on the right lists 'Content' (Job Aids, Slides, Guides, Books, Videos, Exercises) and 'Games' (Distribution, Logistics Introduction, Logistics Extended, Logistics Platform, Manufacturing Introduction, Manufacturing Extended, Manufacturing Advanced, Retail Introduction, Retail Extended).
